'Awful injuries' of cop dragged by car for a mile

A POLICE officer died when he was dragged for more than a mile by a car along a country lane, a court heard.

Andrew Harper, 28, got caught in a strap trailing behind a car in Berkshire on August 15 last year.

His uniform was "literally ripped and stripped from his body" and was "left with the most awful injuries", the Old Bailey heard.

Henry Long, 18, of Mortimer, Reading, and two 17-year-old boys deny murdering PC Harper (above).

The jury was told PC Harper and a colleague were responding to a report of a quad bike theft. PC Harper was barely alive when he was found by his colleague.

Long has previously admitted manslaughter and conspiracy to steal a quad bike.

The two 17-year-olds have pleaded guilty to conspiracy to steal a quad bike. The pair deny manslaughter.

The case continues.

Drivers rescued after floods hit

TWO people were rescued from cars as heavy rain brought flooding to parts of Wales yesterday.

The River Ely burst its banks at Peterston-super-Ely in the Vale of Glamorgan, where members of the public rescued someone from their vehicle.

There was a second car rescue on the A458 in Cyfronnydd, Powys, where wading firefighters rescued a person trapped.

Flood warnings are in place with wet and windy weather expected to continue.

This post on the disease is sweeping the internet - here we reprint it in full

I'M a doctor and an Infectious Diseases Specialist and I've been at this for more than 20 years, seeing sick patients on a daily basis.

I have worked in inner city hospitals and in the poorest slums of Africa.

HIV-AIDS, Hepatitis, TB, SARS, Measles, Shingles, Whooping cough, Diphtheria...there is little I haven't been exposed to in my profession.

And with the notable exception of SARS, very little has left me feeling vulnerable, overwhelmed or downright scared.

I am not scared of Covid-19 even as the sixth person died of it in Britain yesterday. I am concerned about the implications of a novel infectious agent that has spread the world over and continues to find new footholds in different soil.

As of last night there had been more than 4,000 deaths worldwide and more than 116,000 cases.

I am rightly concerned for the welfare of those who are elderly, in frail health or disenfranchised who stand to suffer mostly, and disproportionately, at the hands of this new scourge. But I am not scared of Covid-19.

What I am scared about is the loss of

CALM DOWN...IT'S JUST A DODGY COLD

Virus doc tells us to use common sense reason and wave of fear that has induced the masses of society into a spellbinding spiral of panic, stockpiling obscene quantities of anything that could fill a bomb shelter adequately in a post-apocalyptic world.

I am scared of the N95 masks that are stolen from hospitals and urgent care clinics where they are actually needed for frontline healthcare providers and instead are being donned in airports, malls, and coffee lounges, perpetuating even more fear and suspicion of others.

I am scared that our hospitals will be overwhelmed with anyone who thinks they "probably don't have it but may as well get checked out no matter what because you just never know..." and those with heart failure, emphysema, pneumonia and strokes will pay the price for overfilled ER waiting rooms with only so many doctors and nurses.

I am scared travel restrictions will become so far reaching that weddings will be cancelled, graduations missed and family reunions will not materialise. And well, even that big party called the Olympic Games...that could be kiboshed too. Can you even imagine?

I'm scared those same epidemic fears will limit trade, harm partnerships in multiple sectors, business and otherwise and ultimately culminate in a global recession.

But mostly, I'm scared about what message we are telling our kids when faced with a threat. Instead of reason, rationality, openmindedness and altruism, we are telling them to panic, be fearful, suspicious, reactionary and self-interested.

Covid-19 is nowhere near over. Italy is closed down and 60 million are in quarantine. Other countries will follow - yesterday Spain reported 1,000 cases. It will be coming to a city, a hospital, a friend, even a family member near you at some point.

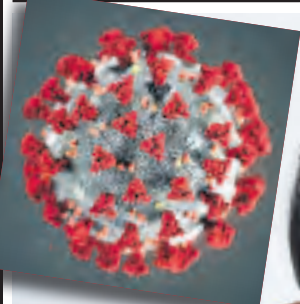

Expect it. Stop waiting to be surprised further. The fact is the virus itself will not likely do much harm when it arrives. But our own behaviours and "fight for yourself above all else" attitude could prove disastrous.

I implore you all. Temper fear with reason, panic with patience and uncertainty with education.

We have an opportunity to learn a great deal about health hygiene and limiting the spread of innumerable transmissible diseases in our society.

Let's meet this challenge together in the best spirit of compassion for others, patience, and above all, an unfailing effort to seek truth, facts and knowledge as opposed to conjecture, speculation and catastrophising.

Facts not fear. Clean hands. Open hearts - our children will thank us for it.

LATEST UPDATE: Dr Jenny Harries tells it straight

THE start of the UK peak of the coronavirus epidemic is expected within the next fortnight, England's deputy chief medical officer has said.

Dr Jenny Harries defended the Government's decision to delay closing schools and introducing other tactics, saying experts are assessing new cases hourly to achieve a "balanced response".

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

But new measures, including those aimed at protecting the elderly and vulnerable, are expected shortly as cases rise more rapidly across the country.

The latest figures show that nearly 400 people in the UK are now confirmed to have Covid-19, and six people have died in British hospitals.

The first UK citizen to die from coronavirus was infected on the Diamond Princess cruise ship in Japan.

Dr Harries said that the vast majority of those diagnosed with the virus in the UK are "pretty well" but that they may "feel a bit rough for a few days".

She added: "We can expect a peak in cases."

"It has a relatively slow take off at the start, that's where we are at the moment. It will start to rise quite sharply."

Asked when the rapid increase of infections might end, she said: "Within 10 to 14 days we'll be likely to advise people with symptoms to self-isolate and we are expecting that start of the peak to come within that period."

She added staying at home in self-isolation was "extremely effective in trying to move our epidemic curve forward".

Decision

Dr Harries said that cancelling big outdoor events like football matches would not necessarily be a decision supported by science.

She said: "The virus will not survive very long outside. Many outdoor events, particularly, are relatively safe."

Speaking on Sky News, Dr Harries said "many, thousands of people" would contract coronavirus as the disease continued to spread in the UK.

She added: "We currently have relatively few cases here, which is why we are still in the containment phase."

"Obviously we will have significant numbers in a way in which the country is not used to."

The comments came as Italy extended coronavirus travel restrictions to the whole country, with soldiers and police enforcing the bans.

Airlines - including BA, easyJet and Jet2 - cut thousands of flights, to and from Italy, in the wake of the country's lockdown and advice from the Foreign Office against all but essential travel.

Meanwhile in the UK, Taxpayer-owned bank RBS will allow people affected by the coronavirus outbreak to defer mortgage and loan repayments for up to three months.

TSB also said it would also allow a mortgage window, but for two months, and both banks said savers could close fixed-term savings accounts without charge.

This is designed to allow people to access cash if they need it as the impact of the virus is felt.

War

And there's good news for motorists - Asda and Morrisons have kicked off a new petrol price war by slashing the cost of a litre by 2p to 114.7p amid an oil stand-off between Saudi Arabia and Russia.

The two countries' rift over production on Monday sent the FTSE 100 tumbling to its worst day since the 2008 crash.

MUM... LOOK AT MY COCK!

Hollywood babe Kate sends mum fake dick photo

HOLLYWOOD beauty Kate Beckinsale was fake photographed with her "own" COCK – and then sent the snap to her mother.

The Underworld star then shared a hilarious text message exchange she'd had with her mum Judy Loe.

Kate, 46, posted the exchange after forwarding the graphic photo, as mum Judy had lots of questions as to what exactly she was staring at.

She captioned the pic: "My favourite part of sending my mother a fake nude I found of myself sporting a healthy sized penis is she can really handle anything except not knowing EXACTLY how it came about, and if somehow I have brought it upon myself."

Sex trolls frequently target Hollywood stars, using space-age tech to create bogus nude snaps of famous lovelies.

But the practice of giving female stars a fake penis – in effect, turning them into fake digital shemales – is still a niche pursuit.

It's not the first time the pair have exchanged online cock-related chats.

In 2016, Kate shared a photo of mum Judy holding a huge purple dildo with her four million Instagram fans.

Actress Judy is the widow of Kate's dad, Porridge star Richard Beckinsale.

FEMINIST activists from the group Extinction Rebellion blocked Waterloo Bridge in London on International Women's Day.

But luckily for onlookers, they were TOPLESS!

The group of 31 women formed a human chain across the bridge to "highlight the disproportionate impact of the climate and ecological emergency on women".

The activists said they chose the location - otherwise known as The Ladies' Bridge - because many of the welders, stonemasons and labourers that built it during World War II were women.

The women taking part in the protest were topless to symbolise the vulnerability of women around the world in the face of what they call "climate breakdown".

They had the words "climate rape", "climate murder", "climate abuse", "climate inequality" and "climate justice" on their bodies.

And a similar topless protest took place in Paris in what they called the "patriarchal pandemic", arguing men are behind the global coronavirus outbreak.

Transgender row for Piers and Nandy

LABOUR leader hopeful Lisa Nandy became embroiled in a heated row with telly presenter Piers Morgan – over the issue of TRANSGENDER rights.

The Wigan MP asked the Good Morning Britain host to apologise after he repeatedly asked her to say whether she felt it was “unfair” for athletes who now identify as female to compete in women’s sport.

Ms Nandy said it was for sporting bodies to establish a commission to discuss the issue.

She accused Piers of being “irresponsible” and pitting women’s rights against trans rights, adding: “You have created more heat and less light.”

Court of Appeal kicks out gender neutral passports

A CAMPAIGNER has lost a Court of Appeal challenge over gender-neutral passports.

Senior judges ruled against Christie Elan-Cane, who brought a challenge relating to “X” (for unspecified) passports.

Elan-Cane has fought for legal and social recognition for non-gendered identity for more than 25 years, and believes the UK’s passport application process, which requires individuals to indicate whether they are male or female, is “inherently discriminatory”.

During a hearing in December, her lawyers argued that the current policy on gender-neutral passports is “unlawful” and breaches human rights laws.

But, in a ruling yesterday, three senior judges dismissed the appeal, which came after a judicial review action was dismissed by the High Court in June 2018.

‘WEINSTEIN CASE GAVE ME FLASHBACKS’

Accuser tells jury she was scared and confused

DENIES CHARGES: Ex-first minister Salmond and (right) official residence

A WOMAN who has accused Alex Salmond of sexually assaulting her has told a court she was “scared” to come forward because he was a “powerful man”.

She said she raised the allegations after getting “flashbacks” around the time of the #MeToo movement.

The former Scottish government official, known as Woman H, was giving evidence, for a second day during Mr Salmond’s trial.

Mr Salmond denies carrying out a total of 14 sexual assaults on 10 women.

He says he is innocent of all of the allegations against him, which are alleged to have happened while Mr Salmond was serving as Scotland’s first minister and the leader of the SNP.

By ROY DURRIDGE
news@sundaysport.co.uk

The charges include allegations that Mr Salmond sexually assaulted Woman H at the first minister’s official Bute House residence in Edinburgh in May 2014, and attempted to rape her at the same location a month later.

On Monday, Woman H told the High Court in Edinburgh that she had felt “hunted” by Mr Salmond, who she claimed had “pounced on her” in June 2014, pulled her clothes off, pushed her onto a bed and then lay naked on top of her despite her protests.

Giving further evidence on yesterday, she said she had emailed a colleague the following day to say she would not be attending a sporting event with the first minister.

The woman said she used an arm injury she’d previously suffered as an excuse and did not mention the alleged attack because she was “still in shock” and had “just tried to pretend it didn’t happen”.

She said: “I didn’t communicate to anyone that I had been assaulted. I asked a friend and colleague if anything had ever happened to her because I was trying to figure out whether this was a one-off like a drunken mistake due to the pressure of the campaign and he (Mr Salmond) had just gone off the rails.”

“I was trying to make sense of what on earth had happened. I didn’t go into the details of it.”

Woman H went on to say she had told her husband while they were on holiday together some time later that she was considering speaking to SNP HQ about some “bad things” involving Mr Salmond that had happened to her during the independence referendum campaign, but had not gone into any detail.

She said: “I was trying to work out if there was a process in the party because I was confused and scared and wanted to be secure about talking to anyone before I did so. “The first minister was a very powerful man and I didn’t want to get on the wrong side of him.”

Woman H said she began having “flashbacks” around the time of the #MeToo movement and the Harvey Weinstein case, and that she believed the SNP was starting to look out for cases of sexual harassment so the party could take action.

She said: “These issues started to be discussed and I started to have what I could describe as flashbacks.”

“I thought I would call a staff member at SNP HQ who had been dealing with these issues, Ian McCann. I might have texted him first.”

The court was shown texts sent to Mr McCann, where he arranged a meeting and gave assurances the process would be confidential.

She said the first time she told the full story was when she spoke to Police Scotland.

Mr Salmond says he is innocent of all of the allegations against him, and has entered not guilty pleas to 14 charges.

PARAMEDIC ‘GROPE’D COLLEAGUE’S BOOBS’

A PARAMEDIC groped a colleague’s breasts and told her, “You have a nice bum”, a tribunal heard.

James Kelly allegedly touched the woman’s stomach and legs and told her, “There are no stretch marks on your boobs”.

Kelly also pulled down her trousers and felt her bottom, the Health Care and Professions Tribunal Service (HCPTS) heard.

The paramedic faces a series of allegations of inappropriate behaviour while employed by the North East Ambulance Service.

He allegedly knelt down and lifted her arms to reveal her bra.

Giving evidence, his colleague insisted she was telling the truth in her evidence.

The woman, who cannot be named, was asked by panel chair Ian Hughes:

“There are allegations these accusations are malicious. What would you like to say about that?”

Through tears she replied: “I don’t know why anybody would lie about something like this, put themselves through this as a person.”

Nipple

Louise McCullough, representing Kelly, confronted the woman, suggesting she was not telling the truth.

She said: “So the registrant [Kelly] is on his knees, you say he lifted your arms up by your wrists to reveal your bra.”

The witness replied: “Yes.”

Ms McCullough went on: “So a man who is not very tall is kneeling in front of you and he somehow gets hold of your wrists to push your arms higher?”

“Then you say that – despite the fact you’re wearing a close fitting bra – from underneath he has exposed your nipple? None of this happened.”

The woman insisted: “Yes, it did.”

Ms McCullough went on: “There was no assault, no touching, no inappropriate words in the ambulance.”

“You are lying when you say that he was feeling you up under your breasts, making comments about your body. He wasn’t lifting your arms up by your wrists exposing your boobs. He did not make any comments about the lack of stretch marks on your breasts.”

The woman again insisted that he did. Kelly denies the allegations of sexually motivated misconduct.

If the panel finds his fitness to practise is impaired by reason of misconduct he could be struck off. Hearing continues.

'Gwynnie' sex party braves coronavirus

TOP sex club Sinctm – which has reportedly hosted Gwyneth Paltrow and Bill Maher in the past – will press ahead with an LA orgy this weekend, despite fears over coronavirus.

A spokesperson said: "We are going through appropriate measures to sanitize the venues, screening those who plan on attending, and supplying extra soap and sanitizer with instructions about how to use them properly."

"We take all of this very seriously, for the safety of those attending. Refunds are also being given to those who do not wish to attend, no questions asked."

The club demands that men wear tuxes and women wear either lingerie or cocktail gowns, and masks – not usually of the N95 respirator variety.

It's not the first time Sinctm has flirted with fallout from a global crisis – in September last year, it had to scrap public tickets for an event in Kiev, Ukraine, because of political tensions with Russia.

Climate change protestors whip up 'sex strike'

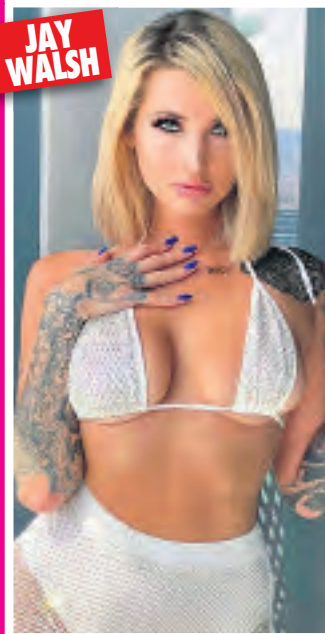

ENVIRONMENTALISTS are launching a 'sex strike' – calling on East Sussex County Council to take more action on climate change.

A protest is planned outside County Hall in Lewes on March 16, encouraging people to refrain from sex with the 50 county councillors until they 'agree to stop funding climate change'.

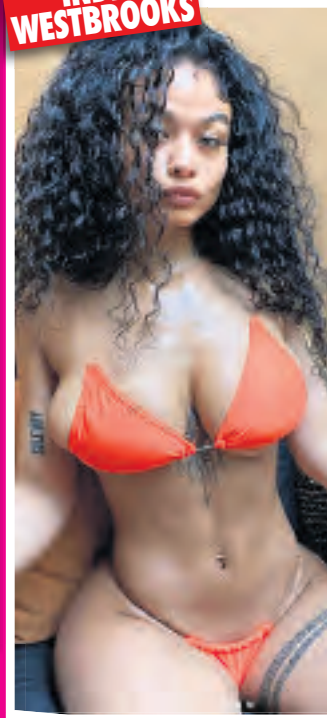

It is part of a direct action campaign by Divest East Sussex, calling for the county council to stop investing in fossil fuels – which it says the authority invests £175m of the East Sussex Pension Fund in.

A spokesperson for the campaigners said: "We urge all those concerned about climate change to join this strike."

RADIO MAN TWIDDLED HIS KNOB IN THE BUSHES

A SEX addict former local radio star performed a sex act in a bush then ran from police while flashing his genitals – just two days after being released from prison.

"You're out for two days and there you go, at it again," Judge Rupert Lowe told Ricky Neville, 51, who was seen ducking and diving in Margate, Kent, shrubs.

"You have a strong urge to go out and do that in bushes, while looking at people."

"You were released from prison on Friday, and on Sunday you went off and did it again – going to some bushes near Dane Park where you removed your trousers, you had no pants on anyway, and you started doing it as you have done before."

Hiding

Canterbury Crown Court heard a witness glanced from her window to spot Neville in a state of undress, hiding when cars and walkers passed.

She called 999 and as officers rounded on the thicket Neville leaped over a wall in a bid to flee in December last year.

Arrested within just a few minutes he told officers: "I'm sorry you have to see this – I didn't think anyone could see me."

In interview Neville explained he became "overwhelmed" with the lurid urge while at his home.

Prosecutor Gareth Burrows explained Neville's compulsion is reflected in his lengthy criminal record, which includes 18 indecent exposures, six indecent assaults and nine breaches of Sexual Harm Prevention Orders.

More recently the former radio broadcaster, who has diagnosed sexual OCD, was locked up for stalking in 2017, causing a woman great distress.

After refusing to order a psychiatric assessment the judge told Neville: "You take the view that you are ill and need more help."

"The probation officer's view is you have been given that help and don't take advantage of it."

Neville was jailed for two years for breaching a SHPO and outraging public decency.

AN NHS radiographer who accessed the personal records of hundreds of female patients before pestering them for dates claimed working in the dark made him feel lonely.

Stewart had earlier appeared at Hamilton Sheriff Court and admitted two charges of obtaining personal data of 32 named women and others without a clinical or medical reason to do so.

He also pleaded guilty to a further 16 charges of acting in a threatening and abusive manner to women he had contacted between March 2013 and August 2018.

Stewart of Fenwick, Ayrshire, will be sentenced next month.

PERVERT DRESSED AS SCHOOLBOY TO GROPE TEEN GIRL

By JAYNE FERGUSON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A 64-YEAR-OLD man dressed up in uniform and passed himself off as a schoolboy so he could squeeze the bottom of a 14-year-old girl.

Michael Wilson wore a wig and posed as a pupil when he sexually assaulted his victim.

He was later caught by a member of staff standing in an out of bounds area of the Headlands School in Bridlington, east Yorkshire, which he had attended, wearing the uniform.

After his arrest a day later, police searched Wilson's home, where they found a secret room which contained a story written by Wilson titled 'My Life As A 13-year-old Schoolboy', Hull Crown Court heard.

Wig

They also found blazers with the crests of different schools, plus the uniform he had been wearing on the day he sexually assaulted his 14-year-old victim.

Prosecuting barrister Richard Thompson told the court that two schoolgirls saw Wilson approaching them on the morning of January 8, 2019.

"The defendant was walking towards the school wearing a wig, a white shirt, a blazer and a Headlands School tie," said Mr Thompson. "He approached and without asking anything he squeezed one of the girl's bottoms before walking towards the school.

"He was seen by a member of staff in an area close to the school building clearly marked as out of bounds.

"The staff member initially thought this was a student, but when he approached closer he noticed he was not.

"The defendant said he was looking for someone but immediately walked off down the driveway.

"The member of staff managed to take a picture of the defendant."

Mr Thompson told the court that the impact of the incident had caused the victim to overdose on two occasions.

After Wilson was arrested, officers found a fake Headlands School identification card which contained an old picture of the defendant.

Police also searched his home in Bridlington, where they found school uniforms and the document titled 'My Life as A 13-year-old Schoolboy'.

Wilson pleaded guilty to one count of sexual assault.

He was sentenced to 12 months in prison, suspended for two years, and must adhere to a sexual harm prevention order for seven years.

A MAN from London has become the second person in the world to be cured of HIV, doctors say.

He was not cured by the HIV drugs, but by a stem-cell treatment he received for a cancer he also had, the Lancet HIV journal reports.

In 2011, Timothy Brown, the "Berlin Patient", became the first person reported as cured of HIV.

ANGRY and frustrated ITV viewers have hit out at the new series of Liar for being 'far-fetched' and 'unrealistic'.

Having all been left on tenterhooks by the drama's gripping series one finale in 2017, excitement among millions of fans was at fever pitch for its return last week.

But, many have been left unimpressed so far.

The drama over the rape of Laura Nielson by Doctor Andrew Earham enthralled the UK a few years ago and after the shock plot twist of Earham being found dead at the end of Liar's first run, viewers were hoping series two would deliver the goods.

But, while some folk are still loving the new episodes, others have slammed the show – and its new characters.

Tweeting on Monday's episode on ITV, one viewer ranted: "Are you trying to tell me I have waited three years for this absolute bore of a shit show?!"

And another viewer posted: "Series two is terrible. Nobody can act and the storyline jumps too much."

Maths teacher sent nude pics to lad aged 15

A MATHS teacher who sent a boy of 15 nude pictures and told him she was a "bad girl" has avoided jail.

Dorothy Veracka, 42, sent nude pictures of herself to the minor student between September 2018 and March 2019.

The mum-of-three began talking to him on Google Classroom, moved the conversation to Snapchat because she knew it wasn't monitored.

During one chat with the boy, Veracka told him she knew what she was doing was wrong and she was a "bad girl".

A court in Bolton, Massachusetts heard that the pictures of herself sent to the student were found on her mobile phone, and she admitted sending them.

The now ex-teacher's teacher's sentence of two-and-a-half years in prison was suspended for two years with probation but she must now register as a sex offender, and not have any unsupervised contact with children under the age of 16.

Grandad's jailed for sex with teen

A 27-YEAR-OLD who is a GRANDFATHER had unprotected sex with an underage teenager just days after she ran away from home.

Dale Wayne Williams was 23 when he committed the offence on the 16-year-old in February 2016.

He fled and wasn't arrested until he returned to his home in Tasmania for the birth of his first grandchild four years later.

A judge sentenced Williams to eight months in jail and ordered his name be added to the sex offenders registry during sentencing at the Supreme Court of Tasmania in Hobart yesterday.

A jury found him guilty of sexual intercourse with a person under 17.

When the rape took place Williams was out on bail for a string of drug and driving offences.

TRUMP 'NO' TO VD IN MOSCOW

DONALD Trump will not be coming to Moscow for Victory Day celebrations on May 9, the Kremlin has said.

Russia has repeatedly invited the US President to visit Moscow on the 75th anniversary of victory in the Second World War, the nation's most important holiday.

Mr Trump (right) said last year he appreciated the invitation, but was not sure if he could go as the event falls "right in the middle of political season".

"Via diplomatic channels, we have received information that the (U.S.)

president will not be coming," Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov said.

He added that it remains unclear who will represent the US on Victory Day in Moscow.

Vladimir Putin has said it would be "a mistake" for world leaders not to be present at the celebrations.

"I think that, concerning former members of the anti-Hitler alliance, the right thing to do would be to attend, from both a domestic political stance and a moral one," the Russian President said.

AS CHARLOTTE DAWSON APPEARS WITHOUT HER SLAP...By SIMON DEAN news@sundaysport.co.uk

WHEN we see celebs, they're usually preened to within an inch of their lives – painted by top make-up artists and nicely coiffed by personal crimpers.

But every now and again we get to see a famous face without an inch of slap.

For some women, it hardly makes a difference – their natural beauty shines through.

Shock

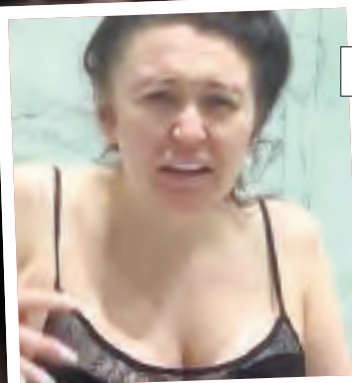

But for others, seeing them without their war paint can come as a bit of a shock.

Take Charlotte Dawson – the reality babe who we rarely see without her trademark cosmetics.

Without her makeup, she looks TOTALLY different.

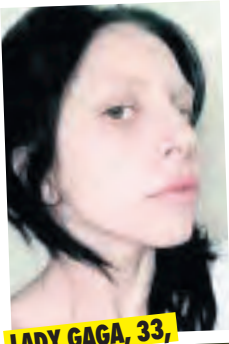

So today, we present celebs without their makeup. But this isn't some half-arsed celebrity mag that birds read in the hairdresser.

So, as this is Midweek Sport – we show them without their bras, either!

Man shoots his girlfriend as he pays diner bill

A MAN accidentally shot his girlfriend at the end of a restaurant date – firing a stolen handgun when he reached in his pocket for his wallet.

Anthony Ciccarelli (above), 19, allegedly inadvertently fired the Ruger 9mm when he went to pay the bill, hitting girlfriend Celeste Haynie in the upper right leg.

The couple initially drove away but pulled up half-a-mile away to call for help.

Their night ended with Ciccarelli's arrest and his date being taken to hospital in Buffalo, New York, with minor injuries.

Police later learnt the gun had been stolen from a car in Niagara Falls in 2018.

Ciccarelli, 19, was charged with reckless endangerment as well as criminal possession of a stolen firearm.

He was bailed but faces seven years in prison if convicted at his upcoming trial.

GEMMA & SANDY TALK SEX!

'Heterosexuals only' own goal

A PROFESSIONAL football club in Australia has apologised after promoting a singles night and stipulating it was for "heterosexuals only".

The Western Sydney Wanderers announced their April 4 A-League game against Perth Glory would be a singles night.

After a fierce reaction on social media, with some alleging it breached anti-discrimination laws, the contentious wording was removed.

BOOZE-loving Timothy Evans meticulously plotted murder for weeks – to the point that he even wrote a 'to do' list before strangling his girlfriend to death.

And item number four on that twisted list was a big night out – to celebrate her death...

I've killed her...now LET'S PARTY!

MANY murderers refuse to take responsibility for their twisted actions.

Some file appeal after appeal in the courts as they seek to dodge their punishment.

But not Timothy Nelson Evans. In 2010 the 60-year-old planned and executed the slaying of his girlfriend Wenda Holling, 70, a woman he'd lived with for two years and whom he'd once loved dearly.

Smother

He waited until she was watching TV before pouncing on her from behind – at first trying to smother her with a pillow before abandoning that idea and throttling her rigid with his bare hands.

Poor Wenda fought for her life, clawing at Evans as her lungs collapsed and her life ebbed away.

And what did Evans do immediately afterwards?

Took a shower, grabbed a beer and went out drinking with his best friend.

As Evans himself put it: "I followed through with the plan – and I planned party time, too."

GRIM DISCOVERY: Investigators carry Wenda's body from the woods where Evans dumped her

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Now Evans, from Kiln, Mississippi, awaits execution by the state.

He's also fully aware of what he is – a monster.

In an interview with a local newspaper shortly before his sentence was passed in August 2013, he admitted: "This may sound strange but I think I deserve to go to Death Row."

"I don't feel I deserve to have the mercy of the court because of what I did."

"I can't say how much it hurts me for what I've done to her and what I did to her family."

"I think about it every day."

Evans had moved into Wenda's home in the spring of 2009 after a two-year romance. While their relationship had been rocky, both believed they could make a go of it.

Wenda was a regular churchgoing mother of two, an upstanding citizen in a community that adored her.

In contrast, Evans was an alcoholic carpet-fitter with a long criminal record for driving while under the influence.

But, despite also being 10 years younger than Wenda, they became a couple.

That is, until Wenda went missing on January 5, 2010.

Evans told authorities he thought she had gone to Florida to visit relatives.

But when she didn't show up, a full-scale hunt was launched by the Hancock County Sheriff's Department.

Eleven days into the search Wenda's friends and family were distraught.

VICTIM: Wenda Holling was strangled

Reverend Gary Faith said at the time: "She's a sweet lady. Pretty much everybody loves her."

"She's involved when we have dinners, she's one of our readers on Sunday – she reads the scripture before we have the sermon. She's a very caring lady."

Prayer

"We've been holding her up in prayer ever since we found out she was missing."

Kenneth Hurt, chief investigator for the Hancock Co Sheriff's Department, said: "From my understanding, it's very unusual for her to not make contact with someone."

Of course, prayers and search teams couldn't save Wenda.

She was already dead, face-down in a shallow grave.

Carlos Redmon, of Gulf Coast Search and Rescue, combed nearby terrain. He revealed: "We've been able to uncover several pieces of what we may consider evidence."

"We won't know the

IN FRIDAY'S

MONSTER: Killer Evans admitted he deserves to be on Death Row significance of that evidence until it is analysed by the Mississippi Crime Lab." Then, on January 26, 2010, a body was found in woods just off a highway.

By this point Evans had gone on the run, hot-footing it to Florida. When the law caught up with him two weeks later, he denied any wrongdoing.

In a ludicrous attempt to hoodwink cops, he claimed Wenda had come at him with a knife and had fallen in the ensuing struggle and hit her neck on a table.

He hadn't killed her, he argued, but he had put her body in the boot of his car and dumped it on wasteland.

Soon enough, though, the whole sorry saga blurted out of Evans's mouth in a confession.

Court records state: "Evans revealed that, after Holling had driven him home that afternoon, he had decided to steal her credit card from her purse but she had caught him in the act."

"He and Holling began arguing and he decided to kill her."

"As Holling was sitting in her living room chair, he went and got a pillow and put it over her head."

"He said, 'When that didn't work, I just strangled her. Then I picked her up and put her up on her bed and I got the credit card. I took a shower and I just went out like everything was fine."

Evans took Holling's credit card and picked up his friend, Joe Thomas, in Holling's car around 5pm, saying: "Come on, let's go party."

Evans also revealed how he'd been plotting Wenda's death since December 20, setting up a precise time frame.

Number four on his list was 'planned party time'.

Speaking about how his original smothering plan had failed, Evans explained: "The pillow wasn't working, so I just used my hands. I had already planned it so I might as well follow it through."

Sozzled

"I just lost control of my thoughts. I lost control of what I was doing and what I was thinking."

After getting sozzled with his pal, Evans realised he needed to get rid of the body that was slowly decomposing at his home.

He went back and began by changing Wenda's blouse – the one she was wearing was covered in blood.

He put it in the bin, along with her glasses.

Court documents state: "The next morning,

Evans placed Holling's body in the boot of her car, picked up Thomas and drove to Harrison County. While driving he told Thomas he had run over a skunk. He asked several times if Thomas could smell it.

"He dropped Thomas off and then stopped at a gas station. He used cash to buy beer, but he used Holling's credit card to pay for gas."

"Evans then drove to a rural area where he dumped Holling's body in the woods about 10 yards from the side of the road."

"The same day, Evans tried to use Holling's credit card at a Walmart but it was declined."

When Evans's trial got under way, despite a series of confessions, he decided to plead not guilty. His lawyers tried to argue he was guilty of manslaughter only, owing to the fact he'd been so drunk.

But neither the jury – nor Evans himself – truly believed it.

Forensic pathologist

Dr Paul McGarry went on to describe how Wenda had taken many agonising minutes to die, adding: "She had extensive injuries. It took a lot of force from a strong hand to strangle her."

Assistant District Attorney Matthew Burrell also gave an emotional closing argument, saying: "The defendant showed no value for human life. Being drunk was no excuse."

"He could have taken anything from that house, but he took Mrs Holling's life."

"He celebrated after he killed her. He just took a human life and he celebrated."

Having been found guilty, Evans was handed a death sentence at Hancock Co Circuit Court by Judge Lisa Dodson.

District Attorney Joel Smith said: "This will not bring back Mrs Holling but it will bring justice to her family. It has been a tough trial and there were a lot of painful moments that the family had to re-live."

"It was satisfying to see the relief on their faces."

Evans appeared to show genuine remorse – addressing Wenda's family, he said: "Every day since this has happened I have felt remorse."

"I loved her at one time and I am truly sorry."

After the verdict, Wenda's daughter, Melissa Brimmer, said: "Although we are relieved, we find little comfort because this does not bring her back."

"Wenda was a mother, a sister, a grandmother and a friend. She is dearly missed and can now rest in the peace she deserves with the conviction of her killer."

Birthday

Wenda's son, Jon Compton, admits he's still struggling to come to terms with what has happened.

In a recent interview, he said: "She always had a smile on her face. She was just a great lady."

"They found Evans on my birthday. It was one of the best birthday gifts I could ever get."

"Now I know the person that took my mother's life will never get out of jail. That's what I call justice."

BEAUTY'S HEAD IS CHOPPED OFF IN MOTEL

Cleaner finds horror scene

VICTIM: Makayla (right)

TWO men have been arrested after the body of a "nearly decapitated" woman was discovered by shocked hotel cleaning staff.

Makayla Young, 24, was found face down on a bed with one arm behind her back and multiple stab wounds on February 28.

Anthony Fuerte, 27, and Lionel White, 32, have been charged with murder and are currently being held on an £800,000 bond.

Both have pleaded not guilty to second-degree murder and are due in court later this week.

The victim's sister, Emily Young, said that Makayla knew one of the suspects.

Police have not yet disclosed a motive in the killing at the Rodeway Inn in North Spokane, Washington.

Shattered

A statement issued on behalf of the family read: "Her life was taken from us. We think, 'Why, how could this be? Not our beautiful Makayla'."

"Our hearts are shattered."

She was described as a "bright light in everyone's life" who always had a smile.

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A housekeeper at the motel saw blood on the room's door handle and on the concrete outside.

Cops later discovered Makayla's body in the room, partially nude with bedding covering her nearly decapitated head. She also had stab wounds to her chest.

They also found a trail of blood and bloody handprints leading to the coffee shop where Fuerte was arrested.

White was allegedly seen by hotel staff putting bloody towels outside the room's door.

KINKY Lauren Reece says she LOVES dressing up in the bedroom – and it always drives fellas WILD!

The 23-year-old busty babe, from Nottingham, revealed she has tons of outfits for when things get hot and steamy.

Boasting a 36C rack and a perky rear, she added: "My naughtiest outfit is a lingerie set which I wear with over-the-knee boots. "The bra has holes for my nipples and the knickers are crotchless – that gets blokes horny every time!"

"I can just lie back and tell the lucky guy to grab the heels on my boots and lift my legs into the air.

"The more he pushes my feet back towards my head, the deeper the penetration. "Sometimes I wish I was double-jointed!"

Teacher paid £40 to have pupil beaten

COPS have arrested a teaching assistant for paying a student to punch a classmate.

Mum-of-two Lisa Hutchinson, 41 (above), was arrested after police said she made a deal with another pupil to punch them on her behalf.

She then paid the student £40 to carry out the assault.

A student is said to have received the money but did not end up carrying out the act.

Hutchinson has been charged with two counts of endangering the welfare of a child.

She was released on bail and will be arraigned at New Hartford Town Court in New York City at a later date.

Hutchinson had acknowledged the incident on Facebook together with a link to a news incident reporting the details.

She wrote: "I'm just putting this out here for everyone – yes this is me."

"Well you know, and if you don't please keep your comments to yourself. You only know one side."

Man kills own bro over sex with mother!

A MAN was hacked to death by his younger BROTHER after he was caught shagging his own MOTHER.

Neighbours said it was common knowledge the victim had been sleeping with his mum.

His younger brother had gone to check on his mum at 9pm on Sunday but couldn't find her.

On realising nobody was responding, he decided to break the window – only to find his mum and elder brother in bed together.

While confirming the incident, Kisii Co Police Commander Jebel Ngere said they'd been told by the public in Nairobi about the incident.

The top cop said: "It is alleged that the deceased was caught having sex with his biological mum aged 55."

Killer shot couple in their sleep

A "COLD-blooded" man killed a sleeping couple, dumped their bodies in a swamp and got his stepdaughter to help cover up the crime.

Todd Jackson, 34 (above), was busted for allegedly breaking into the home of Raymond Cline, 33, and his wife Crystal Ann, 37, and shooting them in the head as they slept.

Police in Polk Co, Florida, were tipped off that Amberlyn Nichols, 19 was trying to sell Raymond Cline's truck for just £150.

Nichols confessed she knew all about the crime and led cops to both bodies, which were decomposing in swampy woods behind the couple's home.

She claimed her stepfather was angry because Raymond Cline, an acquaintance, owed him £23,000.

Jackson was charged with two counts of first-degree murder, while Nichols was charged with one count of accessory and two counts of failure to report a death.

Nichols also faces a charge for dealing in stolen property.

Axe falls for armed doughnut robber

A HATCHET-wielding thief robbed a doughnut shop - making off with a box of treats but no cash.

Christopher James, 40, allegedly barged into a Voodoo Doughnut eatery in Portland, Oregon, carrying an axe.

James jumped over the counter and began stuffing a box with doughnuts, Portland police spokesman Sgt Kevin Allen said.

The bakeshop, which is open around the clock on weekends, confirmed that no-one was injured.

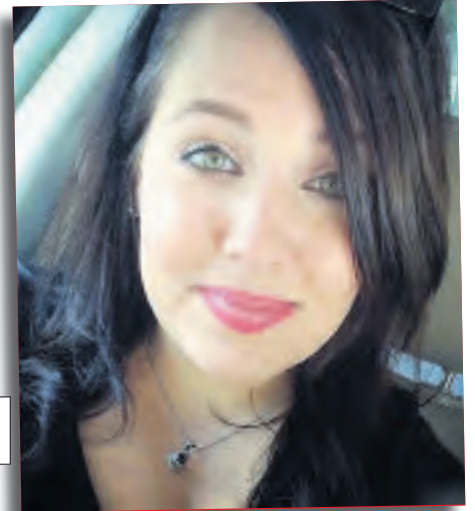

Police caught the suspect red-handed about a block away, eating a doughnut and holding a pink box from the shop.

He ran away, leaving the weapon, but cops chased him for about two blocks and arrested him.

He was booked into the Multnomah Co Detention Center on a robbery charge.

Maths Miss sucked off teen in class

By SIMON DEAN news@sundaysport.co.uk

A MATHS teacher sexually assaulted two teenage students after sending them naked pictures of herself and inviting one into her classroom for a blowjob, say cops.

Samantha McFerrin, 29, allegedly had sex with one of the students in her truck 15 times, and oral sex with another.

She faces two charges of aggravated sexual assault of a child under 14 and sexual assault of a child aged under 17.

Prosecutor Preston Burns, from the Harris Co District Attorney's Child Abuse Division in Houston, Texas, said: "It's something we take very seriously."

"These are still kids we're talking about - they'll be affected by these cases probably for the rest of their lives."

The first incident happened in 2018 when McFerrin started a relationship with a 14-year-old via Snapchat, according to court records.

A second victim, aged 13, reportedly had nude photos of her on his phone and when investigators quizzed him, he told them last autumn McFerrin had requested that he come to her classroom at Space Center High School in Houston where she eventually gave him oral sex.

Court records also say McFerrin befriended a female student and confided in her about one relationship.

She allegedly told the student she bought one victim a computer "to keep the relationship quiet".

McFerrin, who is married, turned herself in last week.

Her lawyer said she is currently out of jail and on an electronic tag and added his client "will contest the allegations and looks forward to her day in court".

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week ASHLEIGH GEE has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

Lesbo romp gave me most powerful orgasm of my life

Dear Ashleigh,

I'M a 21-year-old student and my fella's pestering me to have sex with a woman while he watches.

It started a couple of months ago when I was on a night out with my course group and one of the girls came on to me.

At first I was a little taken aback as I have never been with another woman before – although I have sometimes fantasised about it.

But as the night wore on and I got more into it, the thought of it really began to turn me on.

And when she gave me a goodnight kiss, I was thrilled as she slipped her tongue in my mouth.

Licking

It was as if the decision had been made for me and I was quite willing to go along with it.

My whole body tingled as her hands held my bum, pulling my pubic mound to hers.

The sweet taste of her mouth got my juices flowing so much that when she asked if I wanted to go back to her place, I didn't hesitate.

As soon as the door closed behind us she was lifting my top, sucking and licking my nipples as her hands fumbled with my zipper.

We moved into the living room, where she pushed me back on the sofa and pulled down my jeans and panties.

I couldn't believe how wonderful it felt as she slowly spread my thighs and began fingering my pussy lips.

Then she leaned forward and teased my clit with her red-hot tongue.

Within minutes I was experiencing the most powerful orgasm of my life.

I've never been what purveyors of grot flicks would call "a squirter" – and I still don't count myself among their moist ranks – but the wetness of my womanhood was something to behold at that lusty moment.

Then it was the turn of my saphic sex buddy. I felt nervous as she slipped off her clothes right in front of me.

But as she revealed more of her gorgeous body it seemed natural to pleasure her in the same way.

My first taste of pussy was truly amazing. I flicked my hungry tongue across her fleshy petals time and time again, before locating her clitoris and going to work on that with some relish.

We spent the rest of the night licking, sucking and fking each other – and have done several more times since.

She even did me up the wrong 'un with a strap-on, which left me howling in ecstasy.

But I made the mistake of telling my fella and he was angry – not for me cheating on him, but because I didn't let him watch.

Should I?

NL, Notts

Ashleigh says...

WHY not? There's always the sexy fun of a threesome to explore.

I bonked hubby's client to keep orders rolling in

Dear Ashleigh,

MY husband has always been a bit of a computer nerd and studied hard to pursue his interest.

He became so good that he gave up a steady job with an insurance company and set up on his own, writing and selling his own software.

To seal his biggest deal yet, he invited a client round to our house one evening for a meal.

I rose to the occasion by cooking us all a chicken dinner with lashings of gravy.

And I even baked an apple pie, served up with custard, for afters.

We made sure our visitor was well supplied with booze and everything seemed to be going well.

Later in the evening though, I told my fella to show the business bloke a video on his mobile of us having sex that we'd made for a laugh some time last year.

I would go to any length to land some business – and well up for it when he said the bloke had asked if he could hump me too!

And I have to admit I was also secretly aroused when I stripped naked for this total stranger in our home.

I let him give me oral for what seemed like hours until my fanny was dripping.

Then he shafted me hard and fast, making me cry out with passion.

Now my husband has asked me to shag the fella regularly to keep the orders coming.

What do you think?

CV, Herts

Ashleigh says...

IF you're both comfortable with this arrangement, carry on and cash in!

Dear Ashleigh,

I'M a 19-year-old girl and I have been confused about my sexuality since I was 18 and still at college.

I fancied boys but I also had feelings towards some of the girls in my class.

As a result, I never had any sexual experiences.

Last month I summoned up the courage to discuss it with some of my girl uni pals who are lesbians and they fixed me up with one of their crowd.

She was two years older than me and we hit it off straight away. I fancied her like crazy and we went back to her flat where we kissed and stripped before I fingered her to orgasm. Then she did the same for me.

A few days later at a party I ended up talking to a great-looking guy who I'd seen in college but never spoken to.

I'd never realised that he fancied me, but when he kissed me I was overwhelmed with desire for him and let him shag me at my flat.

It was an incredible experience to have him thrusting inside me – and yet I still yearned for the tenderness of my new lesbo friend.

Should I surrender to girly love?

SW, Middlesex

Ashleigh says...

YOU may swing both ways, so enjoy both types of loving for now.

BUDAPEST

MY biggest turn has to be getting it on with another really hot woman!

I'm totally straight – so it's purely a wild sexual fantasy.

I especially lust after the overly sexualised porn stars I love to watch online.

Girls with really toned bodies and curvy figures – real boobs or fake, I don't care.

I just love them big!

And women with tattoos drive me wild – I like them to look naughty and a bit edgy, like they'd be absolute filth in bed!

I fantasise about meeting a sexy girl in a club and next thing we know we're touching and grinding against each other on the dancefloor.

Then she tells me to come home with her.

Back at hers we get down and dirty and she kisses and licks me EVERYWHERE, and I'm loving it.

Then she bangs me with a strap-on dildo and her huge tits bounce up and down vigorously. I so need to make this happen!

#HOT

SAUCY Viola Healey has a scorching hot fantasy where she lets a LESBIAN give her ORAL SEX. Viola, 23, from Newcastle, said she ogles girl-on-girl porn all the time and dreams of having her own experience with another busty beauty. The 36E stunna said: "I am straight, romantically, but I do have an eye for the ladies. "I'd say I'm bisexual - I watch a lot of lesbian porn. Two women pleasing each other is my fave turn-on. "I love big boobs and girls who look a bit edgy, with tattoos and who seem a bit dirty sexually. "They have to have a naughty twinkle in their eye! "A woman knows just how to please another lady. "The thought of a woman using her tongue on me to make me climax is heavenly."

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

Bottomley Manor: For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day.

Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous stepdaughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Small and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of noshing as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDs at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

WELCOME to the interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stunnas appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you're clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

All you have to do is drop us an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

VANESSA WALKER

FORMER traffic warden Phil Norman would happily turn a blind eye if Vanessa Walker parked on double yellow lines.

Phil, 39, told us the 29-year-old babe is his ideal woman and said he'd let her off with a parking ticket every time – if he was lucky enough to run into her in their native Blackpool.

He said: "Vanessa is out of this world – she's the sexiest girl I've ever seen."

"In my line of work I meet gorgeous women all the time, who try to use their looks to get out of parking tickets."

"But I never pay any attention, to be honest."

"But if Vanessa had parked her car illegally, I think I would let her leave it there!"

NATASHA NICE

WE wonder what it was about pert Natasha that caught the eye of Derby plumber Niall Campbell.

The 29-year-old beauty, from Clapham, west London, boasts an eye-watering pair of 32Es and Niall, 31, told us he never gets bored of ogling them.

He said: "Natasha has got to be the fittest model on the planet. She's way better than those reality TV stars."

"It would make my day if you'd put a pic of her in the paper soon!"

Well Niall, knock yourself out, son!

LENA LOVE

THIS sexy college girl picture request of 25-year-old Lena Love is courtesy of hotel worker Alun Cartwright, from Torquay.

Alun, 46, said he's been a fan of the Sport since day one and has always had a soft spot for 34D scorcher Lena, now living in Brighton.

Alun emailed to ask for a pic of his favourite model, adding: "Lena is one of the most beautiful models of all time."

"She looks like the girl next door – until she gets her kit off!"

"It would really brighten up my day while I'm waiting for a catch if I opened the Midweek Sport to see a photo of her."

NAUGHTY Jamie Knight loves her massive boobs – because she gets really turned on giving tit-wanks. Jamie, 23, who's from Kilburn, north-west London, reckons her two best assets are her curvy arse and 32E knockers. And it's her boobs that get put to best use.

Squeezing

She said: "Squeezing my boobs around a bloke's hard cock never fails to get me wet! "It's a bit of a conundrum though because it makes me want to get shagged – but I also want them to spurt all over my breasts. "That's why I choose fellas who can recover quickly and start banging me soon after they've shot their load. "The bonus then is that they last for ages and I can ride them until I orgasm!"

HENDO TO CHARGE AT ATLETICO

LIVERPOOL are likely to welcome back inspirational skipper Jordan Henderson as well as left-back Andy Robertson for the visit of Atletico Madrid to Anfield in the 2nd leg of their Champions League last 16 tie.

The tie hangs in the balance with Atleti 1-0 up from the first leg in Spain. Both sides have conceded in each of the seven games they have played between them – Liverpool 4 Atletico 3 – since the 1st leg and there are reports that Los Rojiblancos will not sit back but try and get what might prove to be a vital away goal.

Both teams to score looks overpriced at 11/10 with BoyleSports – especially if Alisson does not recover from his injury. Jurgen Klopp must decide whether he plays James Milner in the Liverpool midfield after his MOTM show against Bournemouth. I think the German will persevere with Fabinho and Gini Wijnaldum although neither have been at their best for some time.

Liverpool are 5/6 to qualify for with William Hill and that is the tip. This is Anfield on a European night and I expect the holders to make it through.

There will be no pre-match handshaking and I'm not convinced there will be too many during the game either. Five or more cards is 10/11 at bet365 and that is also considered too big a price although Dutch referee Danny Makkelie only averages three yellow cards per game in the four Champions League games he has officiated so far this term, although he averages 5 per game in the Europa League.

Topped

Tonight's other Champions League tie between Paris SG and Borussia Dortmund will be played behind closed doors as a result of the current global COVID-19 crisis. The Bundesliga outfit take a 2-1 lead into the second leg and I would expect both sides will find the back of the net in what promises to be an eerie and strange atmosphere in the French capital.

Manchester United are one of just two former winners of the Europa League in the last 16 – other Sevilla – and Ole Gunnar Solskjaer's improving side go to Austria and a meeting with LASK on Thursday. The Austrian outfit currently top their Bundesliga table by six points from Red Bull Salzburg and they topped their Europa League group before the turn of the year.

LASK have won seven of their eight homes in the Europa League but this is the first time they will meet Premier League opposition. United's January signing Bruno Fernandes is the joint leading scorer in the competition so far this season with six and one of those was for his former club Sporting Lisbon against LASK in the group stages of the competition. The Portuguese international should certainly be able to give Solskjaer the low down on the Austrians.

United are 23/20 to take a lead back to Old Trafford next week but this has been a busy time for United and the tip is the draw at 12/5 – with United to finish the job back in Manchester in seven days' time.

OUR FOOTY NEWS HITS THE TARGET

TOP TEAM:
Guardiola and Arteta at City

Gunners take Art from inside info

ARSENAL GAFFER KNOWS HOW TO HURT CITY

MIKEL Arteta will use his inside knowledge to try and sink Manchester City.

The Gunners gaffer was No2 to Pep Guardiola at the Etihad until a few weeks ago.

He takes on his former club for the first time knowing Arsenal are looking for their first league win over City in five years.

The Blues are in shock after their poor showing and 2-0 defeat in the derby against United at the weekend.

And Arteta thinks he has a good idea what Guardiola will try to do in the game.

He said: "It gives me a very

By PAUL THOMAS

clear idea of what they are trying to do and what they will be looking to do.

"It is something different to be able to stop that and as well create the issues that I think we can create for them.

"That has to happen on the day. When they are at their best, we know what they are capable of doing, the variation they have.

"At the end of the day, it's about the players on the pitch and their performance in the match.

"It's going to be a very special night, I am very excited to get back there. I have some fantastic memories, a lot of friends, a lot of people that I like.

"But obviously now I am in a different position, another bench and I will defend my club as well as I can."

The Gunners have not lost in eight games although there have been a few draws in that run.

Banned

They sit eight points off Chelsea in fourth and five behind United who are fifth.

That should be good enough for a Champions League spot after City were banned from the competition for two seasons by Uefa.

Arteta has a big call to make in attack where Alexandre Lacazette has been benched in favour of Eddie Nkeitah.

The Frenchman came on to get the winner against West Ham and is in line for a recall at City.

The boss said: "It's not because of the fact he scored, it's because of the way he trains every day.

"The way he's trying, the way he played even when he wasn't scoring. He's always at his best, training, his attitude is top. The same with the others so they all have a chance."

Arsenal will be without Lucas Torreira after it was confirmed that the little midfielder would miss up to three months with a broken ankle.

WIJN SOURS AT SPURS

Dutch winger the latest to get crocked

DEAL ME IN: Willian

Sign of the times for sad Willian

TOTTENHAM'S injury crisis has been turned up even further after Steven Bergwijn got crocked.

The Londoners are already struggling without key men like Harry Kane and Son Heung-Min. They have been left woefully short in attack and the goals and results have dried up in recent weeks.

Jose Mourinho's men have crashed out of the FA Cup and fallen off the pace in the battle for a Champions League slot through the league. It doesn't help that Bergwijn has suffered a badly sprained ankle in facing weeks rather than days on the sidelines.

By JOHN ANTHONY

A Spurs spokesman said: "After assessment and examination by our medical team, we can confirm that Steven Bergwijn suffered a significant sprain to his left ankle during our match against Burnley. 'The Netherlands international will now undergo an extended period of rehabilitation where his progress will continue to be assessed.'

Mourinho is frustrated by the injury because he wanted to bring Bergwijn off early against Burnley at the weekend.

But Spurs were toiling against the Claretts and went behind before securing a 1-1 draw at Turf Moor.

Instead of bringing Bergwijn off on the hour mark as planned before the game, he ended up staying on for the whole match.

Mourinho admitted: "The plan was for Steven to play 55-60 minutes and then Lucas to come on."

"The plan was to keep the fresh players on the pitch for 90 minutes, but I had to change that at half-time immediately.

"Steven had to play for 90 minutes, so on top of that he's injured."

"We go with everything. The group is very strong and the group is very united. We go with everything. Tired not tired, injured not injured. We go there Tuesday with everything."

There was some good news about Kane though as he started some light training on his long road back from a hamstring problem.

Tight

The England skipper has been out since New Year's Day and there have been rumours that he could miss the summer Euros assuming they go ahead.

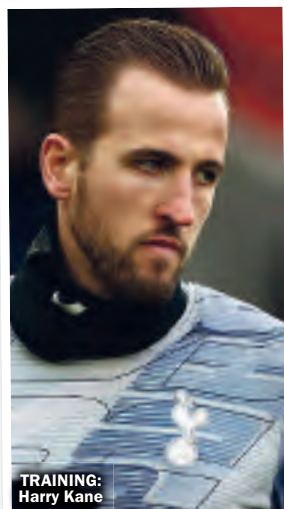

But Kane did some very light training, shooting and passing drills in a short session.

He said: "I love being back on the grass with the ball at my feet."

There are injury issues at the other end of the pitch too where Ben Davies could miss a couple of weeks with a tight hamstring.

And Mourinho's mood won't be lifted by news that Spurs will have a much reduced transfer budget if they don't qualify for next year's Champions League.

Chairman Daniel Levy has told the board: "Funds were ring-fenced for the summer, however not qualifying for the Champions League would have an impact all round."

VIRUS COULD MOVE OLYMPICS

By ANDY MILLOM

THIS summer's Olympics may have to be postponed because of Coronavirus.

But they could go ahead months after the scheduled start in Tokyo on July 24.

Japan is one of the countries that has taken drastic steps to control the outbreak.

Ian Reid is organising the 2022 Commonwealth Games in Birmingham.

He believes it would be possible to move the Olympics rather than just cancelling.

Reid said: "Coronavirus brings huge challenges."

"We feel for our colleagues in Tokyo, who face challenges with everything from the athletes' village availability, sponsors, broadcasting schedules, to the issue of athletes scheduled to compete in other events.

"Of course it's hugely difficult, which I think is why the International Olympic Committee and Tokyo 2020 will do everything they can to make sure that those Games go ahead."

"It's not in anybody's interest to move those dates, but clearly people's health is much more important than sports."

"So if that has to happen, I'm sure they would find a way to do it and people will pull together to make that work. But it is really challenging."

Already, sport is being hit but the Cheltenham Festival is going ahead this week as planned with more than 250,000 descending on the Gloucestershire town.

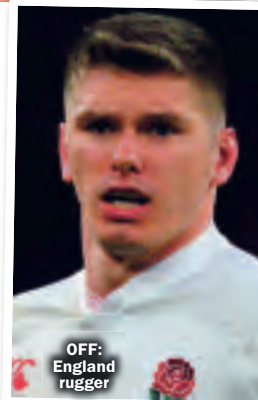

But rugby's Six Nations won't be concluded until next month at least after the France v Ireland match was put back.

Italy v England is also off as the final round of games are hit hard.

A statement from the tournament organisers said: "Following instructions received from the authorities in France, the decision has been made to postpone the Round 5 Guinness Six Nations match between France and Ireland."

"We are still awaiting confirmation for the Women's and U20s fixtures."

WILLIAN admits he's getting fed up with Chelsea as talks stall over a new contract.

The Brazilian has reportedly been offered a two-year deal to stay at Stamford Bridge.

But he wants three years and is holding out.

Chelsea have a policy of only offering shorter contracts to players once they turn 30.

Willian is 31 but is still a crucial part of Frank Lampard's side. He has seven goals and six assists and has become a regular again.

The winger can leave on a free in the summer and it seems strange that Chelsea would let him walk away.

But it's looking more likely that will be the case.

Willian said: "I still don't know."

"There's nothing with any other team. There's no offer from any team. My negotiation for now is with Chelsea."

"There's still nothing concrete from any team. And the situation with Chelsea is still that way."

"Chelsea offered me two years, I demanded three, and it stopped there. There's nothing much."

Respect

Posts appeared from Willian's family members appearing to suggest that he won't be in London for much longer.

But the player himself says he would be happy to remain in the capital.

He added: "Look, I always like to make it very clear the respect I have for this club, the affection I have for Chelsea too."

"Regardless of my situation, whether I'll stay or not, one thing I can say: I'll always try to do my best, give my best on the pitch for this team."

"There's really no offer from any club. So I wanted to make this very clear, that I'm still a Chelsea player, and I'll always try to do my best until the end of my contract. Whether I stay or not, we'll see that in the future."

"We really like London. It's a city that my family and I love to live in, we love the city."

"We love the city and I really don't know why she posted it."

"I hope that in the next few weeks or months this can be sorted. And then you'll know if I'll stay or not. But what I can say is that I'll always try to do my best for the team."

LAMPS KEEN ON DEAN

Chelsea gaffer wants a new Kepa

CHELSEA want Dean Henderson to be their new No1.

Boss Frank Lampard is looking for a goalie to replace Kepa Arrizabalaga who has lost his manager's confidence.

Many pundits believe Henderson should replace

By JOHN ANTHONY

Jordan Pickford as England's No1 for the Euro finals.

He has turned in a series of impressive displays for Sheffield United this season.

That has lit up Lamps who would like to buy the 22-year-old this summer. The problem is he's on loan at Bramall Lane from Manchester United who may not be keen on selling to a close rival.

But given that David De Gea seems to have gone off the idea of signing for Real Madrid, the deal could be on with United already have a top benchwarmer in Argie gloveman Sergio Romero who is happy to stay at Old Trafford.

United would want around £40m for Henderson which is less than the Blues would get for offloading Arrizabalaga back to one of the top Spanish sides at the end of the season.
